

Training in Pastoral Supervision

Dates:

Thursday March 20th 2018

Thursday April 19th 2018

Thursday May 17th 2018

Thursday June 14th 2018

Facilitator: Revd Dr Guy Harrison, Head of Spiritual & Pastoral Care, OHFT and Director of the Oxford Centre for Spirituality and Wellbeing (OCSW)

Venue: 45 Great Ormond Street, London, WC1N 3JH

Numbers: 8 - 12

Who Should Attend?

Those who work within health care and who supervise volunteers, chaplaincy staff or students and who have a minimum of 3 years' experience of ministry or practice in which they will supervise others.

Applications:

Care of the Great Ormond Street Chaplaincy Dep't: chaplaincy@gosh.nhs.uk 020 7813 8232

Cost: £240

Format: Once a month for 4 months from 10am to 4pm. The course is designed to be experiential with a mix of theory, skills practice and group work

Assessment:

Assessment is continuous throughout the course and takes the following form:

- After each day participants submit a short reflexive account of what they have learned and how that applies to their own context;
- Skills practice is observed and feedback given by both the course facilitator and b peers;
- At the end of week 3 the course participants submit a short statement (500 words) of their learning and development needs;
- During week 4 the above statement is self and peer assessed and feedback given.

Award of Certificate: Upon satisfactory completion of the course a Certificate in Supervision Skills will be awarded by the Oxford Centre for Spirituality and Wellbeing.

Accreditation: The course meets the training hour's requirement for general accreditation by the Association for Pastoral Supervision & Education (APSE)
www.pastoralsupervision.org.uk

Outline of the Course

- Definitions
- Styles of supervision
- Collaborative supervision
- Responsibilities and boundaries within the supervision relationship
- Developing self-reflection
- Congruence
- Ethical dilemmas
- Power, context and cultural issues
- Professional practice issues: managing different roles & responsibilities; contracts
- Creativity in supervision
- Challenges of supervision
- Exploring different approaches
- Supervision of supervision

Brief Biography

Guy has worked in specialist palliative care, acute care and mental health care chaplaincy for over 20 years and was appointed to his current post at Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust in 2012. As Head of Spiritual and Pastoral Care he provides professional and management leadership working collaboratively with senior staff and department leads. This includes direct clinical work with patients and small group work. As a trained BACP accredited (registered) counsellor and psychotherapist his work with staff includes one to one support, facilitating staff support groups, reflective practice, mediation and clinical supervision. He also co-ordinates the OHFT staff psychological de-briefing service.

Guy has wide experience of education and training including leading, organising and speaking at workshops and conferences. In pursuing doctorate studies (DPsych 2016), Guy's aim has been to develop and integrate his experience and knowledge of the emotional, psychological and spiritual aspects of wellbeing that are crucial to human flourishing. He has edited the book Psycho-spiritual Care in Health Care Practice which was published by Jessica Kingsley Publications in May 2017 and in addition to his OHFT chaplaincy role became Director of the Oxford Centre for Spirituality and Wellbeing (OCSW) in 2016 <http://www.oxinahr.com/our-centres-and-groups/oxford-centre-for-spirituality-well-being-ocsw>